Thursday 21st June at 19:00

In partnership with Portsmouth Festivities. Director: Tony Richardson. Starring: Tom Courtenay, Michael Redgrave. UK, 1962, 100 mins

Colin is a troubled teenager from the English Midlands whose criminal ways see him sent to a rural youth-prison. His cynical attitudes see him repeatedly clash with the guards—but the scrawny lad's unexpected athleticism also makes him a favourite of the governor. An atmospheric, acerbic and timeless tale of youth in revolt.

Tully (15)

Friday 22nd June at 19:00

Director: Jason Reitman. Starring: Charlize Theron, Mackenzie Davis. USA, 2018, 96 mins

Marlo, a mother of three including a newborn, is gifted a night nanny by her brother. Hesitant to the extravagance at first, Marlo comes to form a unique bond with the thoughtful, surprising, and sometimes challenging young nanny named Tully.

Mandela: Long Walk to Freedom (15)

Saturday 23rd June at 19:00

In partnership with Portsmouth Festivities. Director: Justin Chadwick. Starring: Idris Elba, Naomie Harris. South Africa/UK, 2013, 147 mins

Celebrating Nelson Mandela's 100th birthday and his extraordinary journey from his childhood in a rural village through to his election as President of South Africa, this film explores the Mandela unknown to most of the world - a ladies' man and playboy, a skillful lawyer and freedom fighter. An intimate portrait of the making of a modern icon.

Jeune Femme (15)

Thursday 28th June at 19:00

Director: Léonor Serraille. Starring: Laetitia Dosch, Souleymane Seye Ndiaye. France, 2017, 98 mins Subtitles.

Broke, with nothing but her cat to her name and doors closing in her face, Paula is back in Paris after a long absence. As she meets different people along the way, there is one thing she knows for sure: she's determined to make a new start - and she'll do it with style and panache.

On Chesil Beach (15)

Friday 29th June at 19:00

Director: Dominic Cooke. Starring: Saoirse Ronan, Billy Howle. UK, 2018, 110 mins
Adapted by Ian McEwan from his bestselling novel, the drama centers on a young couple from drastically different backgrounds in the summer of 1962. Following the pair through their idyllic courtship, the film explores sex and the societal pressure that can accompany physical intimacy, leading to an awkward and fateful wedding night.

The Goonies (PG)

Saturday 30th June at 16:15

Director: Richard Donner. Starring: Sean Astin, Josh Brolin. USA, 1985, 113mins
Following a mysterious treasure map into a spectacular underground realm of twisting passages, outrageous booby-traps and a long-lost pirate ship full of golden doubloons, a band of small heroes race to stay one step ahead of a family of bumbling bad guys...and a mild mannered monster with a face only a mother could love.

My Neighbour Totoro (U)

Saturday 30th June at 19:00

Director: Hayao Miyazaki. Starring: Hitoshi Takagi, Noriko Hidaka. Japan, 1988, 87 mins Subtitles.

While their mother recovers from an illness, Satsuki and her little sister Mei get away from it all in an idyllic rural retreat. Far from the bustle of the city, they discover a mysterious place of spirits and magic, and the friendship of the Totoro woodland creatures.

Supper at the Cinema

No.6 Cinema is delighted to be teaming up with another local not for profit organisation, Wild Thyme, the vegan co-operative based in Southsea. Wild Thyme is striving to build an ethical business and develop partnerships with other like-minded organisations, be they suppliers or producers. The shop has a reputation for supplying an extensive range of vegan products but it also has its own kitchen which cooks and sells the most delicious homemade food. If you haven't tried Wild Thyme's food now is your chance to try their ethically sourced, wholesome and taste-tastic food before our Saturday 12th May at 19:00 screening of Isle of Dogs.
